Instructions

- Please carefully read these instructions before completing this application.
- Please have your 2008 Federal tax return available while completing this form. If you must complete this form before your taxes are completed to meet the preferential deadline, please attach a note of explanation to this application.
- Remember to complete a Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) after January 1, 2009. If you must complete the FAFSA before your taxes are completed to meet the preferential deadline, please remember to correct your Student Aid Report when taxes are finalized.
 - Please Note: Applications for returning students will not be processed until the FAFSA has been corrected with actual figures from your parent(s)' 2008 federal tax return.

1. Please check if you will be a New or Returning Student for the 2009-2010 school year.
2. If returning student: year and semester you first enrolled at IWU.
4. Use 1040 line 40. If you do not file a 1040 or do not itemize, fill in "0".
5. Please include any Social Security benefits that are not already included in parent(s)' adjusted gross income on their 2008 Federal Tax return.
6. Use the price you would place on your family home if it went on sale as of the date you complete this form. Renters write in "0".
7. If you have more than one mortgage on your home, add them together for a total.
10. Do not include real estate tax and report only payment for principal and interest or rent.
11. Business value includes the market value of land, buildings, machinery, equipment, and inventory. Business debt means only those debts for which the business was used as collateral.
13. Write in how much the farm is worth as of the date you complete this form. Include the value of the land, buildings, machinery, equipment, livestock, inventories, etc. Do not include how much the home is worth (see question 7). If your parent(s) are not the sole owner(s), write in only their share of the total farm value. The same proportionate share of debt would be reported in Question 15.
14. Those debts for which the farm was used as collateral.
15. If you answered Question 13, please check "yes" or "no".

Explanations/Special Circumstances — Describe any unusual expenses such as high medical or dental expenses, educational and other debts, child care, or special circumstances.
