Please attach the following documents to this cover sheet:

- Mission Statement: Please describe how your proposed theme group mission integrates residential living within the goals of the liberal arts mission of Illinois Wesleyan University.
- Theme area proposal. Provide a general description of your proposed theme living group, what is the purpose of your group? Sketch out a vision of how your group plans to fulfill its mission for the 2011-2012 academic year. Please provide some examples of expected programming and community development. Also provide some plans for how to deal with conflict within the proposed group and/or non-participation.

- Roster(s). Please provide a roster of residents by room or roommate pairing(s). Make sure this roster includes some alternate students in case of roster changes that may occur. More than one roster may be submitted if you would like to account for variance in sizes in housing options. A meeting with the Residence Director of Small Halls will be required of all students who are committed to living within the particular theme. In this meeting, everyone will sign a contract to live with their chosen roommate and to talk about what it means to live with-in a themed community.
- Application. All Students wishing to reside within the proposed theme community must submit a housing application. The housing application is necessary to ensure that the student is committed to living within the theme community as well as being an active resident. The application may also be needed to facilitate a roster selection if there is more student interest than available space.
