

OCTOBER 27 - NOVEMBER 6, 2011

African Culture Week

Thursday, Oct. 27 Black Gold: Wake up & Smell the Coffee (Directed by Nick & Marc Francis, 2006)

Beckman Auditorium, The Ames Library, 7:00 p.m.
International Film Series

Monday, Oct. 31 Storytelling & Drumming by Firelight

Memorial Center Cabana, 7:00 p.m.
Co-sponsored by the African Students Association & the Anthropology Club

Thursday, Nov. 3 IS Colloquium Presentation

William Munro & Irv Epstein: Neoliberalism and Neo-leisure: Sport, Children, and the State in South Africa
Rebecca Gearhart: Seeing Swahili Children: A Visual Anthropological Approach
Beckman Auditorium, The Ames Library, 4.00 p.m.

Friday, Nov. 4 African Beading

Crossroads Global Handcrafts, Main Street, Bloomington
5:00 - 8:00 p.m.

Saturday, Nov. 5 African Beading

Crossroads Global Handcrafts, Main Street, Bloomington
9:00 a.m. - 12:00 p.m.

Sunday, Nov. 6 African Culture Night

An evening of African food, fashion and entertainment
Hansen Student Center, Main Lounge
5:30 - 7:30 p.m.
Sponsored by the African Students Association

*Sponsored by the African Studies Team,
International
Studies Program*