Application Process

The application process for study abroad involves two applications: the IWU Study Abroad Application and the program-specific application. All application materials are due to the International Office by the published deadline.

Checklist

- IWU Application Form + photo
- Program Application, including any required fees, photos, or other materials
- Application Essay: 300–500 word essay on your academic and personal goals for your study abroad experience. The first paragraph should explain your academic reasons, including a brief summary of relevant preparation and interests. The optional second part can address other relevant factors, such cultural interests, related travel opportunities or affinity for the geographic location. At the top of the page, please type your name and the name of the program, term, year(s) of your proposed study abroad experience. (Note: If you are required to write an essay for your program application, you may submit that essay to fulfill the IWU application requirement.)
- Faculty Reference (Note: If you are required to supply a faculty reference for your program application, you may submit that same reference to fulfill the IWU application requirement.)

Please provide the name(s) of your faculty referee(s) _____

Once the International Office has received all your application materials, we will review the application for completeness. If you meet the IWU requirements, you will be given permission to study abroad and, if your program application is order, we will do the following:

- Order an official IWU transcript to accompany your program application
- Complete any home-school authorization/nomination forms required by the program
- Forward the completed application to the affiliated program.

Please initial the following after you have read each item:

_____ I understand that if approved for off-campus study by Illinois Wesleyan University, it is my responsibility to apply to my chosen off-campus program by its deadline.

_____ I understand that I am required to attend the pre-departure meeting in its entirety or permission to study abroad will be withdrawn.

_____ I understand that I must submit all additional study abroad forms (Course Approval Form, Waiver, Medical Information Form, Study Abroad Financial Aid Form, and Letter of Understanding form) by the required deadlines or permission to study abroad may be withdrawn.

_____ I understand that social and/or academic probation can affect my approval for off-campus study.
