Chris Miller Earns College Conference of Illinois & Wisconsin Men's Soccer Honor

Illinois Wesleyan freshman Chris Miller (Normal, University High) has been named "Player of the Week" in men's soccer for the College Conference of Illinois & Wisconsin.

Miller had IWU's only goal in a 1-0 CCIW win over Carthage on Oct. 4 and was instrumental in the Titans' 3-2 victory at Millikin on Sept. 30.

The two straight wins have left IWU with a 5-7 overall record and a 2-3 ledger in the CCIW.

Miller is fifth in the conference statistics with six goals and tied for fifth with 14 points.

IWU Women's Soccer Gains First National Ranking

The Illinois Wesleyan women's soccer team has been nationally ranked for the first time in the program's 10-year history. The Titans (7-1-2 overall, 4-0 CCIW) are No. 19 in the NCAA Division III poll, done by the National Soccer Coaches Association of America (NSCAA).

IWU is No. 3 in this week's NSCAA/adidas Central region poll, behind the U. of Chicago (8-0-0) and Wheaton (8-0-2). The Titans play Chicago on Oct. 22 at home and host Wheaton on Nov. 1.

Illinois Wesleyan plays at Elmhurst on Wed. (Oct. 8) at 1 p.m. The Bluejays are 8-2-2 overall, 2-0 in the CCIW, and are ranked No. 10 in the Central region.
