Last winter, the Illinois Wesleyan men's basketball team was 22-6, advanced to the final 16 of the NCAA Division III tournament, and won the College Conference of Illinois and Wisconsin championship. . . But graduation has taken away 80 per cent of the scoring and 75 per cent of the rebounding totals from last year's team and the Titans will look to a new talent pool that lacks varsity experience but has plenty of physical ability. . . Among the graduation losses are Luke Kasten (first team all-CCIW), John Camardella (second team all-CCIW and team "MVP"), and Seth Hubbard (third team all-CCIW). Chris Silagi, Eric Starkey, Marty Eich and Laban Cross also played key roles. . . Sophomore guard Adam Dauksas is the lone returning starter (23 games) and led IWU with 85 assists while scoring 9.3 points per game. . . The only two seniors this year are guard and captain Jim Lehan (starter in five games last season) and forward John O'Brien and the lone junior is forward Steve Jeretina. . . Sophomore Keelan Amelianovich averaged 13.7 points in junior varsity play last year, while sophomores Jason Fisher (10.8), Cory Jones (12.9), Steve Schweer (11.6), and Mike McGraw (10.4) also averaged in double digits for the JV squad. As of mid-October, Schweer had been cleared to practice but is still recovering from May knee surgery. . . Scott Trost has a 34-18 record in two seasons at Illinois Wesleyan and is 85-57 in six seasons as a head coach. . . Seeing double? IWU's team includes two sets of twins - sophomores Cory and Chris Jones and freshmen Andrew and Zach Freeman.
