

Shiro Oni Studio

IWU Freeman Asia Internship

Summer 2018

Nathan Addis and Elisabeth Williams

Why Apply?

- Leadership skills
- Learn how to run a small business
- Teamwork skills
- Exposure to creative arts and other cultures
- Participation in a local music festival
- Freedom to choose days off
- Expand your horizons
- Learn Japanese

Staff Responsibilities

- Social Media: Post to Facebook/Instagram
- Website: Check often and update
- Artist Assistance: Assist artists as needed i.e. installing artwork, carrying furniture, moving fans.
- Pictures: Take pictures and videos using a manual camera, provided. Adobe Bridge and Photoshop are utilized.
- Exhibition: Make/post title cards, set up/clean up for party
- Workshops: Assist or participate in workshops.
- Office: Printing, laminating, cutting, organizing, cleaning

About Shiro Oni

An Artist Residency in the town of Onishi Japan, a secluded town about three hours from Tokyo.

- Artists come for a month from all around the world
- English spoken at the residency
- Opportunities for interns to pursue their own creative work
- A bridge from rural Japan to the rest of the world
- Open to all art forms
- 6-10 artists per residency
- Housing and bike provided for each person

ネイサン

シロオニ

エリザベス

Onishi:

- Walkable town
- Nearby hiking and swimming
- Local community very welcoming to everyone
- English menus at restaurants
- Japanese language immersion opportunity
- Lifelong friendships/pen pals
(<3 Ken, Aya, Tim, Kimiko, Dynamite Baby)

Who should Apply?

- YOU!!!!
- Artists or artistically inclined people
 - Use Photoshop, Adobe Bridge, cameras, and video editing software
- Those with business skills
 - Marketing, public relations, Excel skills, tech skills, website building
- Music Teachers
 - Learn and teach how to play Taiko
- Japanese speakers
 - Translate posts, speak for artists around town, connect to the local community

ILLINOIS WESLEYAN
UNIVERSITY