From a 1931 booklet of pen sketches of Illinois Wesleyan University

WE STAND IN A POSITION OF INCALCULABLE RESPONSIBILITY TO THE GREAT WAVE OF POPULATION OVERSPREADING THE VALLEY OF THE MISSISSIPPI. DESTINY SEEMS TO POINT OUT THIS VALLEY AS THE DEPOSITORY OF THE GREAT HEART OF THE NATION. FROM THIS CENTER, MIGHTY PULSATIONS, FOR GOOD OR EVIL, MUST IN THE FUTURE FLOW, WHICH SHALL NOT ONLY AFFECT THE FORTUNE OF THE REPUBLIC, BUT REACH IN THEIR INFLUENCE OTHER AND DISTANT NATIONS OF THE EARTH.

Dr. Stephanie A. Whyte is a Senior Clinical Solutions Medical Director for Aetna Medicaid overseeing the medical director team serving Florida, Kentucky and Louisiana covering over 560,000 lives. Prior to this role, she was the deputy and interim Chief Medical Officer for Aetna Better Health of Kentucky. Dr. Whyte has been with Aetna Better Health since March 2015. While at Aetna, she has participated in the Health Care Equity Committee and National Pharmacy and Therapeutics Committee as well as serving as the Interim Chief Medical Officer for the Aetna Better Health of Illinois plan. Before CPS, Dr. Whyte served as the Medical Director of Mobile Care Chicago, where she spent over a decade caring for children with asthma in Chicago's most underserved neighborhoods.

Dr. Whyte is a board-certified pediatrician. She received her bachelor degree in biology from Illinois Wesleyan University, her MD from the Chicago Medical School (now Rosalind Franklin University of Medicine and Science) and completed her Pediatric residency at Louisiana State University Medical Center in New Orleans. She also holds an MBA in Public and Nonprofit Management from Saint Xavier University; is a certified health care insurance executive; and board certified in Health Care and Quality Management. Dr. Whyte has been honored with the "Distinguished Alumnus Award" from both the Chicago Medical School (2013) and Illinois Wesleyan University (2015). Dr. Whyte is a published author, lecturer, media spokesperson, and has served on various local, regional and national advisory boards.
