Faculty Handbook, Ch. III.B.5.b

The purview of the Hearing Committee does not include grievances involving sexual harassment or discrimination, racial or ethnic discrimination, illegal actions, any issues within the responsibility of the Academic Appeals Board or the University Judicial Committee, or terms of employment or sanctions. Please consult other sections of the Faculty Handbook or contact the Office of the Provost or Office of Human Resources for grievances within these domains. For grievances regarding sexual harassment, please consult chapter VI, and for grievances regarding sanctions, please consult chapter IV of the Faculty Handbook. In all grievance matters brought before the Hearing Committee, the Hearing Panel's primary goal shall be to help resolve the grievance.
