Instructional Development (ID) Grant Application

Name(S)
Department(s) or School(s)
Course(s):
Is this your first ID grant application?	•Yes	•No
If your proposal is funded, would you be willing for exemplary submission in the online Handbook ?	_	enter to use it as	an
Please complete the following checklist by placing that your application is complete. Incomplete app without further consideration.	; a check mark a	gainst each item
<ol> <li>Detailed description (1-2 pages, Times or Times</li> <li>Budget Page</li> </ol>	s Roman, 12 po	int) 🔲
Applicant's signature
Supervisor's signature (indicates that the requeste department)	ed funds are not	available from the	?

Instructional Development Grant Budget Page

Estimated expenses (Maximum $500). Include a description of each of the expenses in the 1-2-page narrative. If you are requesting books or videos, please provide specific titles and approximate costs.

Item	Amount
	$

	$

	$

	$
	* *
	 $
Total Amount Requested Maximum award $500)	$

Note: Materials purchased with CD and ID grant funds, including, for example, software, CDs, and DVDs, are subject to all applicable copyright laws. Faculty members are responsible for upholding these laws. Materials for use in the library collection should be purchased through The Ames Library with allotted departmental funds. For details about copyright issues, please go to https://libguides.iwu.edu/copyright, or contact the University Librarian or your department's liaison librarian.