

Melinda's Bio:

My name is Melinda Burgin (she/her/hers), and I am a freshman double majoring in Political Science and Studio Art.

Writing has always been a major part of my favorite classes in school, as well as a creative pursuit, and I am so excited to share this passion through the Writing Center! Some of my favorite types of writing include persuasive essays and literary analyses, as well as anything to do with the arts, but I am open to anything!

I have taken writing-related classes with Professor Simeone, Professor Vicary, and Professor Serraes, and I am happy to answer any questions I am able to about specific assignments/requirements. Most of all, I love to learn and to help others learn, and I am looking forward to learning and growing together!
