

Illinois Wesleyan Writing Center – Ames Library 105B

How the WC can help Faculty and Staff:

- COP program
 - Commenting on Prompts
- Writing Partners
 - Not for Gateway
 - If you don't go this route, you should still encourage your students to bring their assignments when they visit
- Class visits
 - We'll come and explain what the writing center does
- Class instruction
 - We'll come teach a specific genre of writing after meeting with the instructor to discuss the genre
- Appointments
 - We'll help you with your own writing!
- Genre knowledge
 - Shortly Anna will be contacting you for more on this topic

How the WC can help your students:

- Appointments
 - We'll meet with writers for brainstorming, drafting, edits, etc.
- OTP
 - This is our Online Tutoring Program initiative. Through it, we can now meet with them online through WCOOnline (directions forthcoming on our website)
- Writing Workshops
 - We want to help writers so the workshops we're looking at for Fall 2019
 - Moving beyond the 5 paragraph essay
 - Practicing APA and MLA citation styles
- Handouts
 - We keep an online and in-center collection of handouts on writing genres and skills
- Speech lab
 - We'll practice presentations, speeches, and multimodal projects with writers.

Contact information

- Director: Anna Scanlon ascanlon@iwu.edu
- Phone: 309-556-3810
- Social Media: follow us on Twitter and Instagram @IWUWC